STUDENT RELEASE OF INFORMATION FORM

The Student Service Office may receive requests for information contained in a student's file from a third party such as a parent of the student. Pursuant to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, 20 U.S.C. 1231g ("FERPA"), the university may not release this information without the written consent of the student, subject to the exceptions specified under FERPA. You may obtain more information about Student Rights and Responsibilities (FERPA) from your course catalogue or at <http://www.uwc.edu/academics/catalog/catalog.pdf>.

You may, at your discretion, grant the UW Colleges Student Services personnel permission to release student information to a third party by submitting a completed Student Release of Information Form. You must complete a separate form for each third party. The completion of this release form is only authorization to view or discuss academic and accounting information. The information will not be automatically sent to a third party. According to UW College policy, information cannot be released by phone or via e-mail. This form is not a request for grades or a substitute for obtaining a transcript.

The Student Release of Information Form allows UW- Colleges to communicate in person more openly with parents and others about students' academic and financial records. By completing and signing this form, students give UW – Colleges Student Services personnel permission to discuss or display information with the specified parties for three years from the date it was signed.
